

The existing Amateur Radio Service resources are more than adequate for exploring this "new" technology. This rule change will allow Petitioner to build cheaper radios at the expense of overcrowding in the 2-meter band. This is not an acceptable trade-off.